

HEAD OF THE ARMY.

General Miles Will Succeed General Schofield.

THE LATTER HAS RETIRED.

General Miles has received all his military training on the field of experience instead of in the schools. He will be the first general for many years who was not a West Point graduate.

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—There is no longer a doubt that Major General Nelson A. Miles is to succeed Lieutenant General Schofield in the office of commander-in-chief of the United States army.

General Miles made a statement of the fact last night to a reporter of the Associated Press, saying that he was informed of President Cleveland's determination to appoint him on Friday last by Secretary of War Lamont, whom he met in this city by special appointment at the Metropolitan club. General Schofield retired from active service at noon yesterday, and it is said that the appointment of General Miles will be announced Monday or soon thereafter. The general will go to Washington in a few days to assume the duties of his high position.

This announcement will set at rest the rumors which have agitated army circles during the past year concerning General Schofield's probable successor. While General Miles was the senior major general of the army, and one of the most popular personally with his subordinates, it was reported that he was, for some reason, persona non grata to the president, and that the fact that he had no diploma from West Point might weigh against his chances. General Roger was the principal rival for the appointment mentioned.

There was also an impression, in some quarters that the office of general of the army might be left vacant for some time as there is no requirement of law for such a position, and as there are precedents for leaving it unfilled. Only once since the army was organized in 1789, however, has the president failed to appoint the senior general to the command of the army.

When General Miles was seen by a reporter of the Associated Press last night at his headquarters on Governor's Island, he spoke freely of his appointment.

"My informant," said the general, "was Secretary Lamont, whom I met by special appointment at the Metropolitan club in New York last Friday. Naturally, I was much gratified. In a sense, however, my appointment is not a promotion as the grade of lieutenant general became extinct with the retirement of General Schofield.

"I will enter upon my new duties with as little delay as possible, in fact as soon as the secretary of war issues the order announcing my succession. In leaving here I will do so with many regrets. This is the pleasantest I ever had, although in the very heart of civilization, it is much retired as if it were hundreds of miles away instead of being within a gunshot of the metropolis. Then, too, the people of New York and Brooklyn have been very hospitable, and I shall leave them with many social obligations."

General Miles was asked whether he will recommend any changes in the administration of the army. He replied that if he so contemplated it would hardly be proper to discuss them at this time.

The general would make no direct reply to the question whether he thought the grade of lieutenant general might be revived by congress in his case as in that of General Schofield.

When asked whether General Roger will succeed him in command of the department of the case, General Miles replied: "That is the general impression, but of course I can not speak authoritatively."

The rank of lieutenant general expired with General Schofield's retirement, and it is a grade only created by special act of congress in recognition of distinguished services. It has been bestowed upon six generals, Washington, Scott, Grant, Sherman, Sheridan and Schofield.

General Miles has received all his military training on the field of experience instead of in the schools. He will be the first general for many years who was not a West Point graduate, and as the West Pointers are reputed to esteem themselves the aristocracy of the army, it has been reported that his volunteer antecedents would militate against his appointment so far as the influence of the army circle had to do with it. General Winfield Scott was the last commanding general who was not a West Point man.

General Miles is a native of Massachusetts, having been born in Westminister on Aug. 8, 1839. In 1861, he joined the Twenty-second Massachusetts volunteers and served throughout the rebellion with great distinction. He distinguished himself early in his career in the Army of the Potomac, and took part in every engagement except one up to Lee's surrender at Appomattox. General Miles distinguished himself in particular at Spotsylvania. Attacking the bloody angle on the right he broke the enemy's lines, routed him and captured Lieutenant General Bushrod Johnson and his division. At Five Forks, Miles saved the day by coming to the rescue of the Sheridan cavalry and Warren's Fifth corps.

General Miles' promotion was marked by somewhat exceptional rapidity, only about a year elapsing before he was made lieutenant colonel of the Sixty-first New York infantry, and a month later, Sept. 30, 1892, he was made a colonel of the same regiment. In 1894 he attained the rank of brigadier general of volunteers, and early in the following year obtained his commission as major general of volunteers. In 1896 he was mustered out of the volunteer service and placed in command of the Fourth United States infantry, in which he remained till 1899, when he was transferred to the Fifth infantry.

Altogether the new commander had a varied military career. Since the war he has been best known as an Indian fighter. He did fine work at the head of the Indian Territory expedition in 1873. In 1876 he drove Sitting Bull over the Canadian line, capturing a number of noted warriors and also succeeded in making prisoners of Chief Joseph and the Nezperces. In 1878 he defeated and captured a band of Bauocks in Yellowstone park. Not long after this he succeeded in bringing in Sitting Bull and thus was more a factor than any other man in the settlement of Montana and North and South Dakota. In 1886 he captured Geronimo and his band of Apaches in Arizona.

His most recent claim to public attention was the part he took in suppressing the Chicago strike of the American Railway union last year. General Miles was commissioned brevet brigadier general March 2, 1887, brigadier general December, 1880, and major general in 1890, when he was assigned to the command of the division of Missouri, which he relinquished last year to take command of this department on the retirement of Major General O. O. Howard.

In appearance General Miles is one of the most stalwart and soldierly men in the service. He is over six feet tall and does not look his 50 odd years.

WRECK ON THE LAKE.

Steam Barge and Two Schooners Ashore Near Marquette, Mich.

MARQUETTE, Sept. 30.—The steam barge Kershaw and the two schooners, Moonlight and Kent, went ashore on the Choclay beach, four miles east of Marquette, at 4 o'clock Sunday morning, while trying to make this harbor. The schooners were driven high on the sand beach and will weather the storm. The Kershaw was driven on a reef nearly a mile from shore and broke in two in the middle, the bow being washed away. The other half of the boat is still on the rocks with a furious sea beating against it.

The life saving crew reached the wreck at about 5 o'clock and took off nine of the crew. When returning to get the other four men of the crew the boat capsized and the life saving crew had a narrow escape from death. When they reached shore half of them were disabled from cold and one of them nearly dead. The boat was so badly damaged as to be disabled. Another boat was manned at the station with part of the life saving crew and the volunteers, who reach the wreck at 2 p. m., and rescued the four men who were in a yawl attached to the wreck by a cable and in a perilous situation.

Lake Steamer Unable to Land.

CHICAGO, Sept. 30.—The excursion steamer Puritan, with 40 passengers, returned to this city yesterday afternoon, having been unable to land at St. Joe on account of the heavy sea which was running. Three attempts to land were made, but each time the boat was caught in the trough of the sea and whirled about as though it were an egg-shell. The captain said he had never seen such rough weather on the lake before. The passengers were thoroughly frightened, but no one was in any way injured.

ANOTHER SPANISH OUTRAGE.

Marines Land on America—Hill to Search for Filibusters.

KEY WEST, Sept. 30.—Great excitement and indignation has been occasioned here by a report that marines from the Spanish cruiser Conde de Vanadito have been landed on the Florida Keys north of here to search for filibusters. The Conde de Vanadito has been cruising in these waters for some time looking for filibusters. It is the general opinion that filibusters have arms and supplies secreted on the keys north of this city, and the Spanish cruiser has evidently been trying to find them.

Fishermen who came in from the keys yesterday report that Spanish marines have been making a diligent search. The fishermen say the Conde de Vanadito has landed searching parties almost on every key where it would be possible for filibusters to rendezvous. This is considered an outrage here, and a gross insult to Florida and the United States.

The keys belong to Florida and if Spain has a right to land searching parties on the keys it also has a right to land marines on the main land. The insult is considered to be as outrageous as if the Conde de Vanadito had landed a party to search the homes of citizens of Key West. The state department at Washington will be asked to investigate and demand an apology from Spain forthwith. So much indignation has been aroused here by the report that it is feared the Spanish consul will be openly insulted.

ATLANTIC CITY, Sept. 30.—Mrs. J. Janko, a middle-aged woman, who has just moved into a house on Atlantic avenue, while walking in her sleep fell down stairs, broke one arm, sprained the other, cut her head and sustained several other severe injuries, which may result fatally.

Mining Plant Burned.

WEBB CITY, Mo., Sept. 30.—Fire yesterday destroyed the plant of the Victor Mining company. It is an extensive one and was owned by eastern capitalists. The loss is about $20,000 and insurance $8,000.

CHOLERA IN HAWAII.

The Dread Disease Is Believed to Be Under Control.

THE FIRST AUTHENTIC ADVIC.

Seventy-Two People Have Been Attacked With Cholera Since the Plague broke Out—Of That Number Fifty-Two Have Died; but Two White People Were Among the Victims.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 30.—The first authentic advices from Honolulu received for two weeks was brought Saturday by the barkentine Wilder. The Wilder sailed on Sept. 11.

Seventy-two people have been attacked with cholera since the plague broke out. Of that number 52 have died; but two white people were among the victims. During the last 48 hours but one new case had developed. It is believed that the disease is now under check, and it is only a matter of a few weeks when it will be totally eradicated. The citizens' sanitary movement already shows good results. A house to house inspection is made twice a day, and all suspicious cases are sent to the hospital. The natives will not report cases of sickness; they appear to be afraid of white doctors, who, they claim, will kill them.

As a result of almost suspended business many Hawaiians are out of work, and there appears to be real distress among them. A relief station has been opened up, at which all natives may secure supplies of food and raiment.

The sale of fish from the harbor has been prohibited. A quarantine by other islands is still maintained against Honolulu. Provisions are growing short outside of the city, and it is believed that a steamer will be chartered at San Francisco, to load for Hilo on Hawaii, or Kahului on Maui.

GLOOMY FOR DURANT.

The Prosecuting Attorney Has Discovered Damaging Evidence.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 30.—The last has not been heard of the recall which was introduced in evidence by the attorney of Theodore Durant on Thursday. The recall was introduced to show that the accused attended Dr. Cheney's lecture on the fatal afternoon of April 3.

The development of the fact in the course of Dr. Gray's testimony that the record for that date was not in reality original, has given the prosecution an opportunity to follow up the matter and possibly show that a deliberate attempt has been made on the part of somebody to shield Durant. Dr. Gray acknowledged, when questioned by District Attorney Barnes, that the record which stands in the book at present, under date of April 3, was originally entered in the column which should have marked the proceedings of March 31. Subsequently he said the latter was erased and the "absent" and "quizz" marks transferred to their proper place in the column of April 3. The page bears the record for March 31 and clearly shows where the erasures were made, and under a strong magnifying glass shows somewhat indistinctly the entries which it was attempted to obliterate.

District Attorney Barnes and Captain Lees have examined the recall, particularly the erasures, and they are inclined to think that the mark opposite Durant's name was originally an "A," indicating the accused was absent on that day.

The argument is put forward that if Durant had been present at the lecture there would have been no mark whatever opposite his name, unless he had been examined and in that event a cross would have been there—and this mark was not a cross.

Attorney Duprey has not yet opened up his batteries upon the Rev. J. George Gibson, pastor of the Emanuel Baptist church.

The attorney for the defense in his opening statement practically asserted that Dr. Gibson ought to be at the bar in the place of Durant. He has said, however, that as soon as he finishes with his evidence regarding the chisel found in the pastor's study, the hammer and the alleged bloody shoe, he will proceed to show that the writing on the copy of the newspaper in which Blanche Laumont's rings were wrapped bears a striking resemblance to the pastor's style of chirography. In order to do this it will be necessary to produce experts on handwriting. So far as is known no experts of this character have as yet been summoned.

CONFLICT IN SOUTH AMERICA.

Outbreaks on the Boundary Between Peru and Bolivia.

LIMA, Peru, Sept. 30.—Conflicts have occurred between Peruvians and the Bolivians on the frontier, and the officials of the department of Puno have taken measures to suppress the disturbance. Owing to the recent strained relations between Bolivia and Peru this frontier outbreak causes some apprehension.

The senate has conferred with the chamber of deputies in granting a sanction to the Hualgayoc railroad project, the privilege to run 20 years and the limits to be fixed by Chota, Huancabaco, the Cordilleras and the Pacific ocean. There is a guarantee of 20,200 hectares per kilometer and the act allows other railroads running north and south the option of building either a wide or a narrow gauge.

Indications.

Generally fair weather, with cool northwesterly winds.

PASTEUR PASSES AWAY.

The Great French Scientist Dies of Paralysis in Paris.

PARIS, Sept. 30.—Pasteur, the discoverer of the cure for hydrophobia, expired at 5:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon at his residence at Garches, near St. Cloud. His death was caused by paralysis. For several days past his condition has been gradually becoming worse, but the end came somewhat suddenly.

DR. PASTEUR.

His discovery that inoculating a person bitten by a mad dog with an attenuated virus of the rabies producing rabies, acts in such a way that the original poison seems neutralized and the patient recovers, has revolutionized one section of medicine.

The government has decided to hold a state funeral for the late Professor Louis Pasteur.

Professor Pasteur's wife has received telegrams of sympathy from President Faure, from M. Challemeil-Lacour, president of the senate, and from all parts of the world. The government desired to inter the remains of the distinguished savant in the Pantheon, but it was the family's wish that he should be buried at the Pasteur institute.

The obsequies will be held at the cathedral of Notre Dame, probably on next Thursday.

CHANGED THE DATE.

Corbett-Fitzsimmons Fight, It Is Rumored, Will Occur October 7.

CHICAGO, Sept. 30.—There is a sensational story afloat to the effect that the Florida Athletic club of Dallas has changed the date of the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight to Oct. 7. The object of setting ahead the date is to get the start of the governor and pull off the fight before the legislature can convene.

A circus is to exhibit in Dallas in the early part of October, and it is said the club has made arrangements to secure the big tent for an arena. The whole story, however, lacks confirmation. In any event the date can not be changed without the consent of both principals.

Has Not Heard of It.

CHICAGO, Sept. 30.—In reply to a query as to the truth of the report that it has been decided to change the date of the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight to Oct. 7 or 10, Dan Stuart wires the Associated Press from Dallas that the report is news to him and that no change in the date has been proposed.

USED HIS REVOLVER.

Family Troubles the Cause of a Double Tragedy.

DECATUR, Ill., Sept. 30.—Family trouble caused a tragedy here Saturday. Charles Smith, at the house of his father-in-law, Peter Buchert, fatally wounded his 7-year-old child and instantly killed his sister-in-law, Edna Buchert. He also tried to kill his wife, but missed her.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith have separated, but he has occasionally been allowed to see his child. Saturday, while with his wife and child, he suddenly drew a revolver and shot the child fatally. He then fired at his wife, but missed her, the bullet entering his sister-in-law's breast, killing her instantly. Mrs. Smith says she does not know the reason of her husband's attack, as they had not quarreled.

Bull Fight Stopped.

DENVER, Sept. 30.—A "genuine Mexican bull fight" was announced to take place at the Denver Wheel club park yesterday afternoon, and about 2,000 people assembled to enjoy the sport. Several bulls were turned loose in the arena where Arizona Charlie and several cowboys began an exhibition of lassoing. The men were immediately placed under arrest by the police and the audience was dismissed without having seen anything at all resembling a bull fight.

Will Give Out the Contract.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—Secretary Herbert has given to Moran Brothers & Company of Seattle, Wash., the contract for the building of a new torpedo boat. The contract price, $160,000, is $4,000 less than was bid. The award was given conditionally, awaiting the decision from the chief engineer at Fire Island as to whether the firm is a responsible one and capable of performing the contract obligations.

Shot Her Rival.

WASHINGTON C. H., O., Sept. 30.—Lida Hargrave of this place shot and badly wounded Daisy Redman of Columbus here last Saturday night. Miss Redman and Miss Hargrave attended a festival Saturday evening. A young man who had been paying attentions to Miss Hargrave started to accompany Miss Redman home. This aroused the jealousy of Miss Hargrave. She procured a revolver, followed the couple and shot Miss Redman in the shoulder. The girl was arrested.

WILL THERE BE WAR?

Great Britain Not Satisfied With China's Actions.

GROWING TO BE QUITE SERIOUS.

Within Fourteen Days an Edict Must Be Issued Regarding the Viceroy of the Province, Otherwise the British Admiral Commanding Will Act Naval Demonstration Before Peking.

PEKIN, Sept. 30.—The ultimatum of Great Britain in the matter of the Szechuen riots has just been issued. Within 14 days an edict must be issued degrading the viceroy of the province, otherwise the British admiral commanding will act.

Failing the entire compliance of the central government with the British demands, it is understood that a fleet of 14 warships will make a demonstration before Nankin on Tuesday or Wednesday next.

The wife and family and the treasure of the viceroy of Nankin have been brought to Shanghai for safety. Rich Chinese merchants are coming here from every side seeking shelter.

The American commission, consisting of the consul at Tien-Tsin and the naval officer, accompanied by Chinese soldiers and interpreters, are starting overland.

The British warships Rainbow, Plover, Spartan, Swift and Aetolus are at ports on the Yang-Tse-Kiang river. The Carolina, Undaunted, Edgar, Archer and Alacrity are at Woo-Sung. The Daphne and Firebrand are at Shanghai. The British admiral is on board the Edgar.

The viceroy pays the French indemnity of 940,000 taels. Li Hung Chang has been appointed a commission to negotiate a commercial treaty with the Japanese.

MARIPOSA WRECKED.

Passengers All Saved, but the Vessel Is a Total Loss.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., Sept. 30.—The English cruiser Buzzard arrived here yesterday from the wreck of the steamer Mariposa, near Fortean, Straits of Belle Isle. She came to arrange for the dispatch of steamers to discharge the cargo. The Mariposa went ashore on Tuesday morning, four hours before daybreak, with a thick fog prevailing.

When it was light enough to see to land the passengers the sea was too high to send them by the boats and the crew had to send life lines ashore and rig a breeches buoy to fasten the passengers in, and thus send them to land, one at a time. Two women fainted before going, and several others while making the trip. All were taken on board the steamer Sargan, and conveyed to Montreal next day. The ship was a total wreck and her whole bottom was destroyed by being forced over the rocks when she struck. Fishermen are trying to save as much salvage as possible.

KILLED AT A FROLIC.

George Stonaker of Marietta, O., Is Shot Dead by William Ewers.

MARIETTA, Sept. 30.—Saturday George Stonaker was killed by William Ewers, who shot him twice, the balls taking effect in the brain and lungs. A dance was being given at John Butler's, at the mouth of Davis Run, a few miles above here in this county, when several young men quarreled about liquor.

After the dance George Stonaker and Tony Brown followed William and Charles Ewers a mile. When the latter undertook to get in a skiff and cross the river, Ewers drew a gun and shot him. All the young men were about 23 years old, and came from well-to-do and respectable families. The killing, however, is the outcome of a feud of long standing. After the shooting the Ewers boys escaped to West Virginia, and have not yet been captured. This is the first murder in Washington county in years.

Fell From a Balloon.

MONROVIA, Cal., Sept. 30.—An accident occurred here yesterday which resulted in the instant death of Nellie W. Hagel, wife of F. G. Hagel, the aeronaut. The couple have been traveling throughout the state making balloon ascensions and parachute jumps. Mrs. Hagel made an ascent and when at the height of 1,000 feet she pulled the rope which cut the parachute loose. She shot downward a hundred feet like a flash. The air caught the parachute and it commenced to open, but suddenly it became apparent that she was falling. She came down like a cannon ball. She struck on her back, her head coming in contact with the ground first. Her skull was crushed. Deceased was 33 years of age and a native of Illinois.

Confessed His Crime.

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 30.—Henry A. Patton of Jeffersonville was brought to this city yesterday afternoon in charge of federal officers and placed in jail, under commitment of Commissioner Harrison of New Albany, for passing counterfeit money, and in default of $2,000 bail. Patton is a brother of the president of the Patton Hollowware company, and was foreman of the company's plant at the southern prison. He was apprehended in the act of buying spurious coin from a convict, and confessed to having been circulating the bad money for about six months. John Lynch, formerly a guard at the prison, has also been arrested as an accomplice.

Will Break the Bottle of Champagne. WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—At the invitation of Secretary Herbert, Miss Ida Schieren, daughter of the mayor of Brooklyn, will christen the new cruiser Brooklyn when it is launched.

Is Kentucky a Doubtful State?

The peculiar political conditions that exist in Kentucky have led many people to believe that the State is a doubtful one and that the Republicans have a chance to carry it this fall. For this reason there is great interest, both at home and abroad, in accurate and reliable political news from all parts of the State. The Weekly Courier-Journal is now covering this field perfectly, and it is publishing the news without bias or prejudice. A close reader of the Weekly Courier-Journal should be able to forecast in advance what will be the outcome of the State election next November. In addition to giving all the political news and all the news of every kind, the Weekly Courier-Journal is offering to its subscribers $6,000 in cash presents for guesses as to the exact vote and closest to the exact vote that will be received by the Democratic, Republican and Populist candidates for Governor of Kentucky. The price of the paper is only one dollar a year. Samples copies containing full details of the cash present plan will be sent free to any address. Write to Courier-Journal Company, Louisville, Ky.

Bradley's Hot Head.

(Georgetown (Ky.) Times.)

When a man loses his head or his temper, which is about the same thing, he says things which do not look well in print. For instance, at Eminence, where Colonel Bradley did the baby act to perfection, he said:
"I wish I had my voice a minute so I could tell this crowd what utter contempt I hold them in."
In the crowd were a number of elegant and refined ladies, together with many of the most reputable men of Henry and a joining counties.

A WAREHOUSE belonging to the Cincinnati Leaf Tobacco Warehouse Company was destroyed by fire Friday night, with about $250,000 worth of the weed. The loss was well covered by insurance.

It May Do As Much For You.

Mr. Fred Miller of Irving, Ill., writes that he had a severe kidney trouble for many years, with severe pains in his back and also that his bladder was affected. He tried many so called kidney cures but without any good result. About a year ago he began use of Electric Bitters and found relief at once. Electric Bitters is especially adapted to cure of all kidney and liver troubles and often gives almost instant relief. One trial will prove our statement. Price only 50c. At J. James Wood's drug store.

THE SENATORIAL CONVENTION.

Delegates Chosen By the Democrats Saturday to Represent Mason County at the District Convention.

The mass meeting of the Democrats of Mason County, called for last Saturday afternoon to select delegates to the district Senatorial convention next Saturday, was slimly attended.

According to a custom observed by the Democrats of the district for years, it is Lewis County's turn to name the nominee for State Senator, and but little interest has therefore been manifested in the matter in this county.

The meeting at the court house Saturday afternoon was called to order at 2 o'clock, and on motion Dr. James Shackelford was chosen Chairman and Mr. Geo. W. Sulser Secretary. The following delegates to the district convention were appointed:

Judge E. Whitaker,	Henry L. Newell,
John W. Alexander,	E. L. Worthington,
G. W. Sulser,	James E. Cahill,
Burgess Taylor,	James H. Salce,
Richard Dawson,	Samuel Perrine,
Dr. H. L. Parry,	Dr. Jas. Shackelford,
John C. Lovel,

On motion, all other good Democrats of the county were also appointed delegates to said convention.

The meeting then adjourned.

The district convention will be held at the court house, this city, next Saturday at 2 p. m.

The Democrats of Lewis County instructed for James Noel Johnson at the mass meeting Saturday.

A CARD FROM MR. CAHILL.

To the Democrats of Mason County: Having been solicited by many of you to consent to become a candidate for nomination for the office of Representative of Mason County in the General Assembly of Kentucky, I will say that, thanking you for the confidence you repose in me, I announce myself as a candidate for said office. The principles of Democracy and good, honest government must prevail, and if such services as I can render will aid in securing a victory for such principles, they shall be cheerfully and heartily given. Respectfully, JAMES E. CAHILL.

OPTICIAN,

Of Cincinnati, O., will be at the Mineral Well House, Aberdeen, O., on Wednesday, Sept. 25, one day only.

Notwithstanding he is now a practicing physician, in addition to being an experienced Optician, he will continue his business as Optician as formerly, and will make no extra charges for examining your eyes and fitting them with glasses. Prices for glasses as usual. He will make his regular visits from now on.

DEMOCRATS OF MAYSVILLE,
You Must Register To-morrow if You
Wish to Vote at the November Election.

The annual registration of voters in cities of the fourth class occurs to-morrow (Tuesday). Maysville is in this class, and if you wish to vote at the November election or at any other election during the ensuing twelve months, you must register to-morrow. There is no getting around this. It is an absolute requirement of the new law. Here are the places of registration in the various wards:

- First Ward—Jacob Outten's shop.
- Second Ward—Opera house.
- Third Ward—Dennis Fitzgerald's shop.
- Fourth Ward—Geo. Politt's shop, Third street.
- Fifth Ward—Collins & Rudy's office.
- Sixth Ward—Wm. Holliday's.

Voters should give their party affiliation, as this is necessary under the law to entitle one to participate in any primary election held by his party.

Democrats of the various wards are also asked to express their choice for member of the County Executive Committee.

Every Democrat in the city who has the interests of his party at heart should see that the full party vote is registered.

Proposed Educational Improvements.
A recent special from Washington City says that the National Bureau of Education is always considering the most modern educational systems to be recommended to the various local boards. Perpendicular penmanship is a new departure which it is at present considering. This method has already been adopted in Washington and other cities.

One of the latest educational inventions is a cheap profile map to be furnished each pupil engaged in the study of geography. These charts are made of cardboard, which is pressed to resemble a plaster cast. Some are covered with a washable coating. Cities, boundaries, rivers, &c., are to be traced by pencil. The pupil is thus given a vivid idea of the physical features of each country.

The latest educational system expected to revolutionize the schools of the world is "Correlation." The Bureau of Education has been investigating this for several months. Promoters of this system believe that great economy is needed in the culture of the youth. For instance lessons from history, classic languages, geography, geology and other sciences, &c., studied in historical sequence can be more rapidly and vividly understood.

The Pacing Kings.

The defeat of Joe Patchen and Fido by John R. Gentry in phenomenal time at Dubuque (Ia.) on the 25th shows that the little stallion is at himself again and makes more uncertain the great race amongst Robert J., John R. Gentry, Joe Patchen, Guy and Coleridge at Lexington, Wednesday, October 9th. With favorable weather the track will be in record-breaking condition and we shall be surprised if neither Robert J. nor John R. Gentry breaks the race record 2:02 3/4, as the Lexington track is lightning fast and in better condition this year than ever before. In fact it has no superior in America, and it will be worth going thousands of miles to see such horses on such a track. The cheap excursion rates to Lexington will enable thousands to see a race that they will probably never have another opportunity to witness, as both Gentry and Patchen are to be retired to the stud next year.

Grape Catsup.

Exchange: "Grape catsup is esteemed superior to tomato catsup by many cooks. To make it the following ingredients are necessary: Five pounds of grapes, one pound of sugar, one pint of vinegar, one tablespoonful of pepper, one-half tablespoon of salt, one teaspoon each of allspice, cloves, cinnamon. Cover the grapes with water, cook ten minutes, then rub through a sieve so as to remove skin and seeds. Add the ingredients and boil twenty minutes, or till a little thicker than cream; bottle."

A Narrow Escape.

Uncle Milton Cooper was standing on the railroad track on Front street Saturday afternoon, when a freight train backing west struck him. Fortunately he fell lengthwise between the rails, and a brakeman who was near called to him to keep close to the ties. He heeded the warning, and escaped unharmed, although one or two cars passed over him.

MR. M. E. McKELLUP is formally announced to-day as a candidate for Chief of Police at the November election. He served as a Deputy Marshal a year or two ago and is thoroughly fitted for the important position he now seeks.

We mean just what we say where we offer everything in our jewelry stock at cost. Want to quit the business as soon as possible. Many persons are selecting Christmas presents and laying away. The price will certainly sell them. Come at once.

HOPPER & CO.

The series of meetings of the past two weeks which have been conducted by Rev. W. S. Smither at the Christian Church on Lawrence Creek closed last night with a very large audience. During the meeting the attendance and interest were excellent. There were twenty-one added to the church by confession and baptism.

COL. ALBERT A. POPE, who has done such grand work for the national good-roads cause, writes: "It would be a good thing if the Government would extend the good-road work in the Department of Agriculture and build the great national highways. Then, if the States would follow the example of New Jersey and Massachusetts and build State roads, leaving to towns and cities the streets, we would, in the course of time, develop a system of highways not excelled by any in the world. It has got to come. Perhaps we may not see it, though I hope to. Horses have seen their best days. Electricity and bicycles have partially done away with their use, and before this century expires practical motor carriages will be in use. Then the demand will be for still better roads and good roads in all directions, and the poor old horse will be relegated to the country, where he belongs."

SILENT WITNESSES

Of a Catastrophe That Occurred Near
This City Nearly Thirty Years Ago.

Yesterday a party of relic hunters visited the scene of the burning of the steamer Boston, on the bar below Aberdeen, almost thirty years ago, and in turning over some of the sand and rubbish that has lately been thrown out of the old hulk, came upon several articles which will be kept as mementoes of an awful event that is still fresh in the minds of many of our citizens.

Mr. Frank Burgoyne found a bunch of old iron, rust and mud, among which was an old-fashioned crank-handle clock key—probably the key to the clock in the office; also a door hook and part of a lamp.

The writer unearthed a small bundle covered with slime, and which proved to be a package of ladies' wearing apparel. The outside was burned to a crisp, but in the center there were several layers that were not entirely burned up, and it seems to be the remains of a black dress. He also picked up near the article a ball of twine that had been burned to a crisp and that crumbled away; also a mule's shoe that still holds in the nails a small charred portion of the animal's hoof; a bronze buckle of a peculiar pattern, a portion of a burned book, with a few words of the printed matter still distinguishable, a ball of partly melted shot, several door hooks, a part of a lamp, and several other minor articles.

A KILLING FROST.

Jack Put in His Appearance This Morning—The Tobacco Badly Damaged.

A cool wave struck this section early Sunday morning and the temperature this morning was down to the freezing point, or very close to it. There was a heavy white frost, the first of the season. The tobacco remaining in the fields was badly damaged. Some of the bus drivers report it black and badly wilted on the stalk, and it will hardly pay for the cutting.

It is estimated that about one-fifth of the crop in this section was caught by the frost.

EBENEZER Presbytery (South) meets at Millersburg to-morrow. Rev. Mr. Ramsay, of Augusta, will preach the opening sermon.

MR. CHARLES SULLIVAN, who fell while working on Hunter's mill at Washington Friday, dislocated his left wrist and will be disabled for some time.

MR. W. A. WOODWORTH, of this city, has succeeded Mr. James Cheeseman as bill clerk in the C. and O. office at South Portsmouth. Will is all right and we know he will fill the bill to the Queen's taste.

MR. HALL STRODE, formerly of this city, is book-keeper now for the W. P. Strader Company of Lexington. He is a graduate of the Calhoun business college at that point and is working his way to the front as the true Maysvillian generally does.

MR. SAMUEL ROSSER, of Fern Leaf, and Miss Nannie Ricketts, living near Mousburg, will be married next Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the Christian Church on Lawrence Creek, Rev. W. W. Hall officiating. Mr. Rosser is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rosser, of this city. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Collins Ricketts.

Messrs. JAMES BURGER and Wm. Dnly have improved their homes on West Third by having brick pavements laid in front of the premises,—something that has been needed in that locality for a long time. Now if the other property holders could afford to do likewise, it would indeed make a big improvement. The owner of the property on the east corner of the alley ought to be compelled to repair it, as it is in a very dangerous condition, and if not repaired before the bad weather sets in, may cause the city or the property holder or both some trouble.

For the Farmer.

T. M. Farnsworth, of Harrodsburg, raised a stein on which there were 28 potatoes in a bunch.

Tobacco with leaves over four feet long and twenty-eight inches wide was on exhibition at the Madisonville fair.

MR. J. S. JOHNSON, of Garrard County, threshed 150 bushels of clover seed from 65 acres of land after grazing 55 acres up to the 20th of June and cutting a heavy crop of hay from the 10 acres, realizing about $1,000.

There is no industry in the world that employs so many people as that of agriculture, and there is no class of people that the world looks to for the necessities of life, so much as the people who till the soil. It is estimated that there are 280,000,000 men employed in this industry throughout the world, and that their annual products are worth $20,000,000,000 and that the civilized nations pay $13,700,000,000 for the food which farmers furnish them.

WRAPS!

Our stock of Winter Wraps are now ready for inspection. They have been selected with great care. In fit, finish and material, are unsurpassed in the country. Innovations in Congress—An Aggregation of Calamity-Howlers. George's Little Hatchet. Grover and "Rip"

[Correspondence of the BULLETIN.]

WASHINGTON, D. C., September 25, 1895.

When the aggregation of law-makers, known as the Fifty-fifth Congress, assembled on the first Monday in December, numerous and important changes and innovations will take place in the time-honored usages and customs of that august body.

The House of Representatives will not only "turn over a new leaf" but will "turn down" twenty-two pages. In a word the Mercuries or little gentleman pages who were wont to enumerate the House with their presence and add to the uproar by answering every beck and call of "the gentlemen from Skedunk" will henceforth be relegated to an apartment of their own away from the House. An electric bell call system has been placed in the House, and now when a Congressman wishes a messenger he simply touches a button on his desk and a page appears to do his bidding. Formerly when a member wanted a page, he clapped his hands, and as sometimes as many as ten or fifteen were clapping their hands at once you may imagine how much it augmented the noise and confusion on the floor of the House.

Another innovation. Hereafter there will be no more gratuitous distributions of seed by either Congressmen or Senators to grateful constituents in the rural districts. This will be a severe blow to the "way-back" member who is shy of brains, brass and such other little characteristics that go to make up the so-called successful Congressman. We all know that many a Congressman has gained undying fame and won his re-election by the wise and judicious distribution of government seed amongst his constituents. But then the weak member may still rely upon his Pub. Doc. frank, and ride into glory and popularity on one wheel, as it were.

The Senate of the United States was called at one time the most dignified body of statesmen in the world. Last winter's session robbed it of this proud distinction. The House is "off" its dignity at all times and its conduct is an everlasting picnic and circus from start to finish. The members chew, smoke, fuss and fight in open court, and get paid $5,000 per annum for it.

The Republicans will have an overwhelming, but top-heavy majority in the next Congress. As an overdose of poison very often does not kill a person, so it will prove that an overdose of Republicanism will not prove fatal to the country or to Democracy, but will only act as an emetic on the public stomach and clear the decks for a sweeping Democratic victory in 1896.

The Republican Congress will be a great aggregation of calamity-howlers with a voice single to charging the everlasting ruin of the country upon the Democrats, while the land smiles with abundance, and while the wheels of industry are humming in every factory, the pure and simple result of wise Democratic legislation.

Reed, per force, will be Speaker of the House. He will repeat his specialty, bull-dozing, armed with the most potent of all prerogatives—a big majority at his back, which he will absolutely control.

But Tom Reed now will not act as the Tom Reed of unpleasant memory. He has shield his name in the Presidential ring and is playing a quiet game to win. We might call him "Young-man-afraid-of-his-mouth."

But "there are others."

In the first session of the Fifty-fifth Congress we may expect fun, fuss and feathers and fireworks.

Recently the Washington Post contained a fine likeness and a three column article concerning the notable career of our distinguished Kentuckian, Hon. John C. Carlisle, Secretary of the Treasury. The article was written by Col. Sam M. Gaines, recently editor of the Maysville Democrat, and is a remarkably able and versatile piece of newspaper literature. It is not a whit too liberal in its praise of the great Secretary and shows the light of publicity on many hitherto unknown facts of his history and early life, and clearly exposes the traits, characteristics and natural endowments of a born statesman, a leader of men and most distinguished of living Kentuckians. We met the Secretary for the first time a few days ago. Two things about him impress you at once: his striking personality and his dignified modesty. He is over six feet tall, strongly built, but not fleshy, with large but pleasant face and features cleanly shaven; somewhat bald and with great force, decision of character and intellectuality written in every line of his countenance.

It is said that Mr. Carlisle hails from the wrong side of Mason and Dixon's line to ever become President of the United States. However, since the dedication of Chancellorsville battlefield park we have heard that this old sectional line has been wiped off the map.

Keep your eye upon John Griffin Carlisle. The gold reserve in the Treasury continues to decline and if the "run on the bank" don't stop in a few months another issue of bonds may be imperative.

It is said that our gold is leaving this country because we are buying more from foreign countries than they are buying of us. We can only get permanent relief through action of Congress in remedying our present financial system, and, as we understand it, the responsibility will be thrown on the next Congress, or bonds will promptly be issued to maintain the National credit.

At present there are in the Treasury nearly $800,000,000 in gold, silver and paper money. So you see Uncle Sam won't go broke for some years yet.

Speaking of the Treasury with its 5,000 tons of gold and silver, there is now being a big sewer, eleven feet in diameter, dug from near the east side of the Treasury and within 200 feet of the vaults where the cash is. You can drive a coach and six through this sewer if it is so large. After it leaves Pennsylvania avenue near the Treasury, the sewer runs west through the park, a mile to Georgetown. It is made of brick and is a fine piece of work.

Washington continues to grow steadily. During the year ended September 1, 1895, there were 2,000 buildings erected at a cost of $5,000,000, an increase of 600 new buildings over the year before.

Washington has 221,839 square yards of asphalt streets. This year 26,000 yards of new streets will be made and over $650,000 will be expended on surface work alone.

The Capital City is a great place now, but it is only in its youth. In twenty years from now no city of ancient or modern times will compare with it. Still with all its beauty it has more two-story houses than any city I ever saw. "And the loaders! Dover ain't in it with Washington. You have to kick 'em out of your way here, nearly. The majority of them are "colored gem'uns," of course, with a liberal sprinkling of "po' white trash."

Washington is a great center for tourists and visitors. We were all green once, but it is really amusing to watch the "Jay" do the Capitol.

At lunch hour we are in the habit of strolling in the White House yard and enjoying the shaded walks. The Treasury is "next door" to the White House on the east. The other day we chanced to be in the White House grounds when an old couple evidently from the country came in and sat down upon a bench.

Presently a policeman emerged from the pretty little building used as a watch-house. The policeman had a small black box in his hand which looked very much like a Kodak. The old lady saw the policeman with the box and said to his wife:

"Maria, by gum, that chap's got one of them Kodaks, 'en's got to take a plecter' of the White House. Get ready 'en spruce up an' let's be in the plecter."

The old gent squared himself, pulled his wife around, put his hat back on his head and was all ready.

The policeman opened his black box and took out a sandwich and began to eat his lunch. You ought to have seen the old man. His jaw dropped and he simply remarked "Goldam!" His wife said "Simon, you'r an' old fool! let's git outter here."

And they got, minus the "plecter."

Washington monument was struck by lightning again the other day. Although there was a watchman in the top and several people were in the elevator 400 feet from the earth, nobody was injured, but they were all scared half to death. The monument was not damaged. Lightning has repeatedly struck the monument before, one time knocking a good size chunk of marble off of one corner of the top. The big shaft is 555 high, is 55 feet square at the base, and the walls are 15 feet thick for one third of the height and 18 inches at the top. Five inches of the tip top is aluminum. The view from the top of the monument is sublime. It takes the elevator eleven minutes to make the ascent. Trips are made every half-hour and it costs you nothing. The cost of maintaining the structure is $12,000 a year.

North of the monument is a free base ball park or common. Here you can frequently see five games of base ball being played at once.

There is a dealer in relics and curios on D street who has the gall to display what he claims is the hatchet with which George Washington made that immortal swipe at the cherry tree.

The hatchet mentioned is a little old battered and blunt affair and has the following information written in white letters on one side of it:

"Found at last! The hatchet used by George Washington in cutting down the cherry tree."

A card on the frame announces that the hatchet is not for sale but adds that any one can have it for $1,000 cash. The genuineness of the hatchet is as improbable as the story of the cherry tree.

The First Presbyterian Church of this city, of which Dr. Sunderland is pastor, has extended a "unanimous, harmonious and hearty" call upon Rev. T. De Witt Talmage, the great Brooklyn preacher, to come here and be assistant pastor to Dr. Sunderland. Dr. Sunderland has been pastor of this church for forty-two years, and is getting old. Four Presidents have worshipped at this church, viz: Jackson, Polk, Pierce and Cleveland. The church was organized a hundred years ago in a little carpenter shop which stood near where the White House now stands.

Talmage is a drawing card, and his advent here will draw vast audiences, and no doubt greatly augment the congregation.

The First Presbyterian Church is always open, and it bears an inscription inviting all to come in and rest and pray.

President Cleveland, Mrs. Cleveland and the three little Cleverlands will return here about October first. The White House has been put in complete repair for their reception.

Mr. Cleveland is a worthy disciple of Izak Walton, and it is said spends the most of his time at Buzzard's Bay fishing.

Joe Jefferson, the actor, and the President are fast friends, and fish together and drink bait from the same bottle. Recently the President was anchored a few rods from shore waiting for a nibble, when Mr. Jefferson came up and yelled:

"How many have you caught, Mr. Cleveland?"

Grover replied:

"When I hook this one I'm after and two more I'll have three."

The reply "caught" Rip, and he roared with laughter.

Washington has been as hot as a bake-oven during September, with the mercury hovering near 100 in the shade the entire month.

Who blames Grover for staying away? A. F. C.

That Parade.

Cincinnati is justly proud of her fire department, easily the best in America and its police department which stands first in all that appertains to efficiency. The fire department is modernly equipped, and the splendid army of horses that draw the great machines and ladder wagons and march in reserve is a sight to be rarely witnessed. Animals chosen only for their strength and intelligence. They almost talk, these Cincinnati fire horses. The police force marches like a phalanx in blue down the street, six footers nearly every one, clean looking, well dressed, intelligent men, who surpass in drilling any similar force on earth. Four Governors of four of the best States in the Union, Governors MacCorkle, of West Virginia, Brown, of Kentucky, Matthews, of Indiana, and McKinley, of Ohio, will be at the parade. The city will be adorned profusely, and the parade of half a hundred bands will saturate the air with sweet sounds.

The C. and O. is making a special study of taking everybody along its line who wants to go to Cincinnati October 3rd to see this grand spectacle. The price decided upon is more than reasonable and the time given is ample. You can see the parade, see the town and ride home in a fine train. It will be better than medicine and not half so costly. See the C. and O. agent at your station for fuller details.

The Ideal Panacea.

James I. Francis, Alderman, Chicago, says: "I regard Dr. King's New Discovery as an Ideal Panacea for Coughs, Colds and Lung Complaints, having used it in my family for the last five years, to the exclusion of physician's prescriptions or other preparations."

Rev. John Burgess, Keokuk, Iowa, writes: "I have been a Minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church for fifty years or more, and have never found anything so beneficial, or that gave me such speedy relief as Dr. King's New Discovery." Try this Ideal Cough Remedy now. Trial bottles free at J. James Wood's drug store.

CINCINNATI TOBACCO MARKET.

The Offerings Not at All Large Last Week and the Rejections Were Liberal

Furnished by the Cincinnati Leaf Tobacco Warehouse Company:

Offerings for the week, 1,201 hhds.; rejections last week, 409 hhds.; actual sales, 795 hhds.; receipts for last week, 1,107 hhds.

We have another indifferent week to report. The offerings were not at all large, rejections liberal, and still the trade seems to be getting all the tobacco they want, for they don't "spring" the prices a bit.

The market opened on Tuesday about as dull as we have seen it, picked up some on Wednesday, and was stronger on Thursday. In fact the only encouraging feature was that the bidding became quicker towards the middle and latter part of the week, and it looked as if we might recover from the lethargy into which the whole trade seemed to have fallen in the beginning on Tuesday.

The amount of common tobacco on the breaks continues surprisingly large, and the proportion of good and fine tobacco is becoming smaller as the season advances. If present offerings are a criterion for what is now being held, the latter kinds should certainly improve in demand, unless indeed the manufacturers carry a considerable stock of these better grades.

The greater part of the new crop is now housed, and from what we can learn will make a fair average, both as to quantity and quality. Reports from the different sections vary widely, but we think the deficiencies which certainly exist in some districts are made up by larger yields in others, and by new territory.

Danville Advocate: "The Western country is full of cattlebuyers and good prices are being paid for stock. The grass this season cannot be excelled, and in some sections of the range country enough to feed immense herds of cattle is going to waste."

J. E. Prewitt, of Mercer County, threshed 82 bushels of clover seed off 24 acres which he sold at from $4 to $4.10 per bushel.

BALLENGER'S.

On July 1, 1895,

We took from our books $400 worth of accounts against Maysville citizens and offered them for $50, as we used our capital, but could not find a buyer. In face of this we have decided to discontinue the six months credit sales, and all sales will be due when made. Cash sales and small profits will be our motto.
